

Productive, Purposeful Partnerships

Supporting the college sector in Scotland to meet a changing landscape

HMI Karen Corbett- Lead officer: Post 16 liaison

HMI Gill Ritchie -Lead officer: inspection & review

Productive, Purposeful Partnerships

Post-16 landscape

- Colleges
- Career information, advice and guidance
- Modern Apprenticeships
- Community learning and development
- Prisons
- Schools

Productive, Purposeful Partnerships

- Inspection/review
- Different frameworks
- Different methodologies
- Different stakeholders
- Different priorities
- Different cultures

Productive, Purposeful Partnerships

College sector

- The role of College HMI
- Annual engagement visits (AEV)
- External review
- Subject and thematic aspect reports
- The role of Associate Assessors
- The role of Student team members

Productive, Purposeful Partnerships

Importance of engagement with stakeholders

- Learners
- Communities
- Employers - locally, regionally, nationally
- Community Planning Partnerships (CPP)
- Staff

Productive, Purposeful Partnerships

- Putting learners at the centre
- Challenging assumptions
- Overcoming barriers to create pathways
- Acknowledging differences
- Valuing the contributions of all providers
- Listening to learner and stakeholder

Productive, Purposeful Partnerships

Current developments

- Direction of travel re ES and inspection
- Developing Scotland's Young Workforce
- Post 16 Framework & capacity to improve
- CIAG and Modern Apprenticeships
- Action learning pilots
- Role of ES Area Lead Officer (ALO)

Thank you

Any questions?